April 9th, 2010—Michel Financial, a member of MassMutual, is contributing $15,000 toward college scholarships in Los Angeles this year. The MassMutual Scholars Program, which is planning to give $135,000 in college scholarships this year, is expanding its availability to students in nine cities across the country.

"We've always been committed to attracting talented individuals to the field of financial services, and in particular to supporting people of diverse backgrounds," said Kim Michel, Michel Financial Group's CEO. "These scholarships will help deserving candidates to obtain the education and experience they'll need to become financial professionals and, ultimately, to help Los Angeles' increasingly diverse community."

Each scholarship is in the amount of $5,000 and available to applicants who reside or plan to attend a college in the following cities: Atlanta (GA), Denver (CO), Houston (TX), Los Angeles (CA), San Francisco (CA), Central New Jersey (NY), Chicago (IL), Miami (FL), and San Antonio (TX).

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Be of African-American, Asian/Pacific Islander American, or Hispanic descent;
- Be enrolled full-time as an undergraduate student in a degree-seeking program at a U.S.-accredited institution in the U.S., Puerto Rico, U.S. Virgin Islands, or Guam;
- Have a minimum of a 3.0 grade point average on a 4.0 scale;
- Be a rising sophomore, junior, senior or fifth-year senior student enrolled in college full-time;
- Be a resident of Los Angeles, CA;
- Be a U.S. citizen or legal permanent resident with a valid permanent resident card or passport stamped I-551;
- Apply for federal financial aid using the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA); and
- Demonstrate leadership and extra-curricular activities.

The scholarship program's application deadline is May 30th, 2010, and will be administered by the Hispanic Scholarship Fund.

Winners will be notified in late summer.
